18	Nur Alam (52) DoB- 01/04/1963	General Secretary of youth wing of BNP of Pollobi Thana unit	Joydebpur, Gazipur	1		1	Number of cases of arson attack and vandalizing of vehicles were filed against Nur Alam as he was involved with the politics of BNP. In order to avoid the police harassment, Nur Alam went into hiding to his elder brother's house situated at Thailkur village under Joydevpur Police Station in Gazipur on February 6, 2015. On February 12, 2015 at around 1.15 am, a group of plainclothes men identified them as members of Administration (law enforcement agency) picked up Nur Alam from his elder brother's house. His brother asked those men that where was Nur Alam being taken? They told him to contact with the local police station. Later, Nur Alam's elder brother Nur Isalm went to Joydevpur Police Station, RAB-4 at Mirpur in Dhaka; Detective Branch (BD) of Police Head office at Mintu Road in Dhaka; and Gazipur DB police office. But they denied the arrest of Nur Alam. On February 12, 2015 Nur Alam's brother filed a General Diary (GD no-89) with Joydevpur Police Station, which was later recorded as a regular case under section 365/34 of Penal Code 1860 on February 17, 2015. Still there is no whereabouts of Nur Alam.						1	On February 12, 2015 Nur Alam's brother filed a General Diary (GD no-89) with Joydevpur Police Station, which was later recorded as a regular case under section 365/34 of Penal Code 1860 on February 17, 2015.	12.02.2015		Information gathered by HRDs from Rina Alam, Victim's wife, cell no - 01715150428, Rubel Alam, Victim's son, cell no- 01931460094 and Prothom Alo 19.02 2015
19	Dulal Hossain, (24)	An Activist of BNP	bus stand area in Jhenidah		1	1	Polash Hossain, 25, son of Golam Mostafa, and Dulal Hossain, 24, son of Nasim Biswas, were allegedly disappeared by DB police and on February 23, 2015 their bullet-hit bodies were found from a field in Dafolbaria village of Jhenidah Sadar. Both the youths hailed from Charkhajura village under Sadar upazila. They were BNP activists, said Jahangir Hossain, office secretary of the party's district unit. Polash's father is the councillor of ward No 8 in Jhenidah municipality. Family members of the deceased alleged that members of the Detective Branch of Police picked up the duo, shot them sometime on February 23, 2015 and left the bodies in the field. Polash was taken away from Jhenidah on February 18, 2015 and Dulal from Chuadanga on February 19, 2015. Detectives, however, denied the allegation. Rafiqul Islam, in-charge of DB police in Jhenidah, said, "None of our teams is involved in these incidents." Dula's brother Alal Hossain said his brother was picked up by DB police from the bus stand area in Jhenidah, while relatives of Polash claimed that detectives took him from Doshmile in Chuadanga where he went to visit a relative's house. "Many saw plainclothes DB men taking away Dulal. We went to the DB office and the local police station but they could not give us any information," said Alal. They killed him due to his links with BNP politics, he claimed. Polash's mother Morium Begum said her son was not accused in any case. She filed a general diary with Jhenidah Sadar Police Station on Saturday in this regard. Polash's wife Naznin Nahar said, "My husband was a farmer. He was not involved in any subversive activities. Then why was he killed?" BNP leader Jahangir claimed that the law enforcers gunned them down so that no BNP activists would dare to bring out any processions in the town.						1		19.02.2015	23.02.2015	The Daily Star 24.02.2015 http://www.thedailystar.net/frontpage/mysterious-killing-of-2-66346 and Information gathered by HRDs from Alal Hossain-01671605962, Polash's father Mohammad Golam Mostafa-01711704759

22	Shamim Uddin Prodhan	President of Barisal union unit Jamaat-e-Islami of Polashbari, Gaibandha	Grameen phone Customer care center, Jolshoritolta, Bogra			1	1	Shamim Uddin Prodhan went into hiding for avoiding arrest in January 2015 as there were protests going on by the Opposition political party led by BNP alliance. On February 19, 2015 Shamim Uddin rented a house at College Math area in Brindabanpara, Bogra. He used to switch off his cell phone to avoid receiving phone calls from the police. In the mean time his family sent money in his BKash (a BRAC Bank mobile banking) account. Therefore he tried to open his cell phone but he found the SIM card locked. On February 23, 2015 he went to Grameen Phone Customer Care Center at Jolshoritolta in Bogra to open his mobile phone SIM card. He brought his national ID card with him for this purpose. But, he was picked up from there by RAB members. Tania Akhter, wife of Shamim Uddin Prodhan, claimed that on February 23, 2015 at around 3.30 pm, about 20 members of RAB-12 arrested her husband from Grameenphone Customer Care Center at Jolshoritolta in Bogra. After receiving this information from her landlord Sumon, she went to Jolshoritolta, Bogra. From there she went to RAB-12 office at around 5.00 pm. But RAB officers denied the detention of Shamim. As a result she started crying and repeatedly requested them to show her husband. Then RAB allowed her to see Shamim through a hole of the window. Tania again went to the RAB-12 office in the evening on that day. But at that time the RAB officials denied the detention of Shamim. Till he returned they are denying the whereabouts of Shamim Uddin Prodhan. 23	Mahadi Hasan Ruyel	A master's student and JCD activist of Government Titumir College	Jamuna Future Park			1	1	Mahadi Hasan Ruyel, a master's student and JCD activist of Government Titumir College, was picked up from inside Jamuna Future Park on February 26, 2015, allegedly by detectives, the family claimed. Anjuman Ara alleged that police did not cooperate with them in finding out her son. "We had gone to Bhatara Police Station several times but they refused to even register a general diary," she said. Later, the victim's elder brother, Mahmudul Hasan, filed a GD with Khilkhet Police Station. Over the last few days, the family has searched every possible place, in vain, and contacted several police stations, the detective branch (DB) of police, and the Rapid Action Battalion but all of them denied arresting him, she said. The family came to know about his abduction from a youth who was with him at the time. On that day, some men identified themselves as detectives and picked up Mahadi and a junior at his college named Shuvo from the first floor of the shopping mall, said family members. Shuvo, however, was dropped from the microbus in Khilkhet area, said the victim's younger brother, Maidul Hasan Jewel, 24. "Shuvo phoned me from an unknown number around 4:30pm on that day and told me the whole story. We tried to contact him but he went out of network soon after hanging up," he said. He claimed that they got confirmation of the abduction after talking to the people at the shopping mall. Jewel believes that the surveillance cameras would help identify the abductors. However, Nurul Muttakin, officer-in-charge of Bhatara Police Station, said they did not have information about such an incident, and none had come to the station so far regarding this. On 2 Sep 2017 RAB handed over Mahadi to police at Kotwali, Barishal.						1				26.02.2015		Victim's elder brother, Mahmudul Hasan, filed a GD with Khilkhet Police Station Prothom Alo 04.03.2015, The Daily Star 04.03.2015 http://dev.thedailystar.net/city/just-let-me-know-if-he-dead-or-alive-5000

25	Salahuddin Ahmed	Joint Secretary General of BNP	Road 13/B in Sector 3, Uttara, Dhaka			1	1	Joint Secretary General of BNP and former Deputy Minister Salah Uddin Ahmed was allegedly picked up by members of law enforcement agency from House No. 49/B, Road 13/B, Sector-3 at Uttara, Dhaka. Salah Uddin's wife Hasina Ahmed informed that Salah Uddin Ahmed was operating party programmes in hiding at a residence belonging to their relative in Uttara. She said referring to the security guard and caretaker of the house, Akhtaruzzaman, that on March 10, 2015 at around 10:10 pm, two RAB cars and two police cars came and parked in front of the house. They blocked the road for a while by parking them in haphazard position. Later some plain clothed men claiming to be the members of law enforcement agencies entered the house forcibly and took Salah Uddin Ahmed away in blindfolded. In the morning of March 11, she went to RAB office, Detective Branch of Police (DB) office and police station to search for Salah Uddin, but the law enforcement agencies denied the arrest of Salah Uddin Ahmed. Given this situation Hasina Ahmed went to Gulshan and Uttara Police Stations to file a General Diary (GD) but police did not accept the GD. The security guard of Uttara Sector-3 Kolyan Samity, Mansur Ahmed informed that he saw a white microbus in front a residential building while he was patrolling the area on by-cycle. At that time he also saw six or seven stout men there. When he asked their identity, the men identified them as members of law enforcement agencies. On March 12 Hasina Ahmed lodged a writ petition to the High Court Division of the Supreme Court under the Code of Criminal Procedure. The High Court Division Bench after its primary hearing acted on the petition by issuing a rule concerned government and law enforcement officials why they should not be directed to find Salah Uddin Ahmed and bring him before the Court. On March 15, Police Headquarters, Dhaka Metropolitan Police, RAB, Criminal Investigation Department (CID) and Special Branch (SB) of police submitted five separate reports to the High Court. All the institutions mentioned in their report that they did not arrest Salah Uddin Ahmed. In the meanwhile, plain clothed men initially denied the arrest of Salah Uddin Ahmed's personal secretary Osman Gani and his driver Shafique and Khokan and later were allegedly handed them over to the police station. Osman Gani's brother Mohsin Hossain informed that on March 8 at around 2:30 am, two men in RAB uniform and 15 other armed men in plain clothes picked up Osman Gani from his house located at Badda in Dhaka. His family could not find the whereabouts of Osman Gani until March 9 while searching at RAB office, DB office and police stations. No agencies acknowledged the arrest of Osman Gani. On March 9 at around 8:00 pm, Mohsin was informed by police from Gulshan Police Station that his brother Osman Gani was handed over to the police station by RAB. Later Mohsin along with other family members met Osman Gani at the police station. At that time he saw two drivers of Salah Uddin Ahmed, Khokan and Shafique in the lock up. He also informed that Khokan and Shafique were arrested some time before Osman Gani was arrested. At that time Osman Gani informed Mohsin that he and Khokan and Shafique were tortured by RAB taking them in an unknown place for extracting information about Salah Uddin Ahmed. Later Osman Gani, Khokan and Shafique were taken into remand and currently they are in Dhaka Central Jail. Salah Uddin was found at Shilong in India on May 11, 2015.	1							On March 12 Hasina Ahmed lodged a writ petition to the High Court Division of the Supreme Court under the Code of Criminal Procedure.		10.03.2015	11.05.2015 http://bdnews24.com/bangladesh/2015/05/12/family-claims-bnp-leader-salahuddin-ahmed-is-at-hospital-in-indias-shillong-city	http://bangladeshpoliticalspot.com/2015/03/political-crisis-2015-further-evidence.html

The High Court Division Bench after its primary hearing acted on the petition by issuing a rule concerned government and law enforcement officials why they should not be directed to find Salah Uddin Ahmed and bring him before the Court. On March 15, Police Headquarters, Dhaka Metropolitan Police, RAB, Criminal Investigation Department (CID) and Special Branch (SB) of police submitted five separate reports to the High Court. All the institutions mentioned in their report that they did not arrest Salah Uddin Ahmed. In the meanwhile, plain clothed men initially denied the arrest of Salah Uddin Ahmed's personal secretary Osman Gani and his driver Shafique and Khokan and later were allegedly handed them over to the police station. Osman Gani's brother Mohsin Hossain informed that on March 8 at around 2:30 am, two men in RAB uniform and 15 other armed men in plain clothes picked up Osman Gani from his house located at Badda in Dhaka. His family could not find the whereabouts of Osman Gani until March 9 while searching at RAB office, DB office and police stations. No agencies acknowledged the arrest of Osman Gani. On March 9 at around 8:00 pm, Mohsin was informed by police from Gulshan Police Station that his brother Osman Gani was handed over to the police station by RAB. Later Mohsin along with other family members met Osman Gani at the police station. At that time he saw two drivers of Salah Uddin Ahmed, Khokan and Shafique in the lock up. He also informed that Khokan and Shafique were arrested some time before Osman Gani was arrested. At that time Osman Gani informed Mohsin that he and Khokan and Shafique were tortured by RAB taking them in an unknown place for extracting information about Salah Uddin Ahmed. Later Osman Gani, Khokan and Shafique were taken into remand and currently they are in Dhaka Central Jail. Salah Uddin was found at Shilong in India on May 11, 2015.	1							08.03.2015	09.03.2015
27	Shafiq	Driver of Salahuddin	Dhaka			1	1	Joint Secretary General of BNP and former Deputy Minister Salah Uddin Ahmed was allegedly picked up by members of law enforcement agency from House No. 49/B, Road 13/B, Sector-3 at Uttara, Dhaka. Salah Uddin's wife Hasina Ahmed informed that Salah Uddin Ahmed was operating party programmes in hiding at a residence belonging to their relative in Uttara. She said referring to the security guard and caretaker of the house, Akhtaruzzaman, that on March 10, 2015 at around 10:10 pm, two RAB cars and two police cars came and parked in front of the house. They blocked the road for a while by parking them in haphazard position. Later some plain clothed men claiming to be the members of law enforcement agencies entered the house forcibly and took Salah Uddin Ahmed away in blindfolded. In the morning of March 11, she went to RAB office, Detective Branch of Police (DB) office and police station to search for Salah Uddin, but the law enforcement agencies denied the arrest of Salah Uddin Ahmed. Given this situation Hasina Ahmed went to Gulshan and Uttara Police Stations to file a General Diary (GD) but police did not accept the GD. The security guard of Uttara Sector-3 Kolyan Samity, Mansur Ahmed informed that he saw a white microbus in front a residential building while he was patrolling the area on by-cycle. At that time he also saw six or seven stout men there. When he asked their identity, the men identified them as members of law enforcement agencies. On March 12 Hasina Ahmed lodged a writ petition to the High Court Division of the Supreme Court under the Code of Criminal Procedure. The High Court Division Bench after its primary hearing acted on the petition by issuing a rule concerned government and law enforcement officials why they should not be directed to find Salah Uddin Ahmed and bring him before the Court. Police recovered Chantu's body two days later, on March 19 from a railway track in Manikin area under Jessore. Police claimed that he died in a train accident. Meanwhile, Chantu's brother Ruhul Quddus Mantu claimed that there were marks of electric shocks and stab wounds on Chantu's body. He also informed that there were some political cases filed against Chantu as he was engaged with the BNP. He was hiding at friends' houses in Dhaka to avoid arrest. On March 17 at around 8:00 pm, some men in plain clothes picked him up from a friend's house at Moghbazar, Dhaka. Chantus' family contacted Monirampur and Jessore Police Stations, RAB and DB offices since the morning of March 18, but they all denied the arrest. Later Mantu went to some Awami League (AL) leaders for help. AL leaders contacted the police and informed him that Chantu was arrested by Detective Branch (DB) police and he may possibly be shown as arrested either in Jessore or Monirampur Police Station in the evening of March 18. On March 19 at around 10:30 am, Chantu's body was found beside the railway track in Satmail Manikdi area of Jessore. Mantu also said that a Rent-a-Car businessman of Monirampur told him that police of Monirampur Police Station brought Chantu from Dhaka to Jessore DB office after hiring his microbus. The Officer-in-Charge of Monirampur Police Station, Molla Khabir Uddin threatened the microbus driver by calling him to the police station when he returned to Monirampur. 44	Mohammad Thandu Mandol (55)	Former member of Purba Banglar Communist Party	Mollakua village, Jhenaidah	1	1	On July 3, 2015 the body of Mohammad Thandu Mandol (55) was recovered in tying hands and mouth from Bholada village under Shalika Upazila in Magura District after being arrested by police along with his son-in-law Akhtar Ali (35). Thandu Mandol was a resident of Porabetai village under Jhenaidah district. Akhtar Ali's wife and Thandu Mandol's daughter, Labony Khatun informed that her father was engaged with Purba Banglar Communist Party 10-12 years ago. Later he returned to normal life. There were some political cases filed against him when he was active in politics. But later those cases were dismissed. Since then he left his own village in order to avoid police harassment and started living with them in Mollakua village. On June 30, 2015 at around 8:00 pm, he went on the roof to sleep due to warm. Around 10 minutes later she went on the roof hearing the noise of scuffle. At that time she saw that two men were pulling her father by putting handcuffs. Two other men with guns also came up from the downstairs. They identified themselves RAB members and took Thandu Mandol with them. When Thandu Mandol denied to go with them, the four men started to fist and kick him. At that time Labony Khatun sent her husband Akhtar Ali to call local chairman. When Thandu Mandol was picked up in a white microbus outside the house, Labony chased them up to the vehicle. She saw that 3 or 4 other men and her husband were also picked up in the vehicle. She requested those men to leave her husband. But the plainclothesmen, who identified them as RAB members, removed her from the vehicle by hitting her. On July 1, 2015 she and her relatives contacted Jhenaidha RAB camp, Detective Branch office, Kaliganj Police Station and Kotchandpur Police Station. But the matter relating to arrest of Thandu and Akhtar was denied from all places. In the night of July 3, police recovered the body of Thandu Mandol with tying his mouth and hands up from a field at Bholada village under Shalika Police Station in Magura district. Hearing from locals she went to Shalika and identified her father's body. On July 5, in the morning, Labony was informed from Shreepur Police Station of Magura that her husband was admitted to Shreepur Hospital. She came to know that a group of people beat him by suspecting a robber and handed him over to police. Later her husband told her that he was detained in a room with blindfolded and tying hands after taking him from the house. He was only given bread and banana to eat for everyday. In the midnight of July 5, he was taken to Shreepur by a car and was sent off from the car with blindfolds. After a few moments, some people beat him by calling robber and handed over to police. Police of Shreepur Police Station took him to hospital for treatment. 49	Rajib Hossain Sumon, 25	Former activist of youth wing of BNP Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal	Hajirhat of Rangpur			1	1	On November 13, 2015 Rab personnel detained three more persons in Chapainawabganj for their alleged links with the killing of Japanese national Kunio Hoshi. Sixty-six-year-old Hoshi was gunned down on the way to his farmland at Alutari in Rangpur on October 3. At the briefing at a Rab camp On November 13, Lt Col Mahabub Alam, commanding officer of Rab-5 in Rajshahi claimed the trio went into hiding after the Hoshi killing, and changed locations to avert arrest. He, however, did not say when the three suspects travelled to Chapainawabganj. Rab handed them over to Sadar Model Police Station in the afternoon and filed a case against them under the Arms Act. The three were later produced before Chapainawabganj Judicial Magistrate's Court that sent them to jail. Mahabub said a team of Rab-5 went to Satnoil area in Chapainawabganj Sadar upazila around 1:20am on information that some criminals carrying illegal weapons had gathered there. The Rab men detained Sumon for his suspicious movement there and seized a pistol and a magazine from him. Acting on his statement, the elite force conducted a drive in Bidirpur area two hours later and detained Nawshad and Kajal with a revolver and a machete. Sumon's father Md Hanif alleged that his son had been involved with Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal, the youth front of the BNP, a few years ago. Quoting his daughter-in-law Samiya Akter Labanya, he said several plainclothes men identifying themselves as Rab members intercepted Sumon and his wife at Hajirhat of Rangpur while the couple was returning from Dinajpur on a motorbike around 11:00am on October 6. When they tried to force Sumon into a microbus, locals protested it. They then showed their identity cards and took Sumon with them and left the place hurriedly. In an interview with TV channel ATN Bangla, Sumon's mother said, "I know that he [Sumon] is innocent. He was at home on that day [October 3]."	1						06.10.2015	13.11.2015	The Daily Star 14.11.2015 http://www.thedailystar.net/frontpage/rab-arrests-3-suspects-172159

63	Tofayel Ahmed Milon	Alleged criminal/active in village politics	Kazipara area in the capital's Mirpur, Dhaka		1	1	An alleged criminal was killed in a "gunfight" with RAB at a mango orchard in Chak Alampur village in Sadar upazila on December 2, 2015. The dead, Tofayel Ahmed Milon, 20, was the son of Abdus Salam of Ramchandrapur village under the upazila. When a patrol team of Chapainawabganj RAB camp reached near Tin Sakor intersection on its way to Chak Alampur around 2:30 am, a gang of criminals opened fire on them, said Squadron Leader Mobashwer Rahim, Commander of the camp. In retaliation, the RAB men returned fire, triggering the "gunfight" between the criminals and the elite force. After half an hour of the gun battle, the gang members fled, and the RAB members found the body of Milon on the spot. However, Milon's mother Firoza Begum said that she came to know about it from locals around 6:00 am and went to the hospital and identified her son, who was a mason and worked in the capital. RAB members picked him up from Kazipara area in the capital's Mirpur on November 19, she alleged. After knowing this, they contacted RAB-5 offices in Rajshahi and Chapainawabganj but did not get any information about Milon from the elite force members, Firoza said. Later, as per RAB's advice, Milon's grandmother Jolenur Begum lodged a general diary with Mirpur Police Station four days ago. Milon was not involved in any political parties, but was active in village politics, said Firoza. She alleged that RAB picked up her son and killed him. However, RAB denied the allegation and said Milon was a listed criminal.	1						Milon's grandmother Jolenur Begum lodged a general diary with Mirpur Police Station	19.11.2015	02.12.2015	The Daily Star 03.12.2015
