38	Kamrul Islam Sikdar Musa	Informant of Police and suspect of Mitu murder case	Kathgar area, Chittagong			1	1	Police claimed that they are still looking for their informant Kamrul Islam Sikdar Musa in connection with the Mitu killing case, but Musa's wife said the law enforcers had already picked him up over a week ago. Musa's wife Panna Akter on June 30, 2016 went to Rangunia Police Station to file a general diary about her "missing" husband, but the police officer on duty there advised her to go to another police station. Panna told a newspaper The Daily Star over the phone that after staying a couple of weeks at her father's home in Rangunia, she returned home in the port city's Kala Mia Bazar area on June 21. Some neighbours then told her about police officials visiting her home. She said she then called her husband over the phone and after consulting with him, she along with her two sons and a brother-in-law went to the home of her husband's friend Nur Nabi in Kathgar area. "On that night her husband called Nabi over the phone and then told her on his phone that he would visit her a day later," she said. The following morning on June 22, 2016 a group of plainclothes policemen went to the house and asked Nabi and Panna to call Musa over the phone and ask him to come over, she claimed. "They asked them to talk to Musa in such a manner that he did not suspect that policemen were with them," said Panna. When Nabi called Musa, Musa told him that he was near his house and at that moment the "policemen instructed other law enforcers" outside to arrest Musa, she claimed. When asked, Panna said her husband went to Anwara on June 4 and returned home the following morning, the day Mitu was killed. She claimed Musa was not involved in the killing. "My husband is a sand trader who also sells bricks," said Panna, adding that her husband had no case filed against him earlier. But she could not give any details about his work																	22.06.2016		Panna Akter, wife of Musa, cell no- 01814752542, The Daily Star 01.07.2016 http://www.thedailystar.net/frontpage/musa-was-arrested-week-ago-1248724

52	Nazmus Sakib	Alleged member of JMB	Dhaka			1	1	Family members of an alleged suicide attacker claimed that the man was picked up much earlier than law enforcers publicly admitted to have arrested him. Unidentified people picked up Mostafizur Rahman Sifat, 27, from BIDD Road near Khulna power plant on July 25, relatives alleged. Rab claimed to have detained Sifat and five other "suicide attackers" from different areas in the capital on the night of August 9. Sifat's sister Meherun Nesa, 31, said on the afternoon of July 25, her brother was returning home from the Sonadanga campus of North Western University, Khulna, where he studies Electrical and Electronic Engineering. "Some unidentified men picked him up from BIDD road near the power plant gate on a microbus," said Meherun. Their father AKM Mosharrif Hossain is a security guard at the plant. After Sifat was "picked up," the family filed a general diary with Khalishpur Police Station that evening on July 25. Police refused to record it as an incident of picking up, but only as an incident of going missing, Meherun said. Amir Taimur, officer-in-charge of Khalishpur Police Station, confirmed that the family filed a GD, but denied that police refused to take the complaint as an incident of pick up. He said they later heard that Sifat was arrested by Rab in militancy connection from the capital. Rab officials claimed Sifat is a member of militant outfit Ansarullah Bangla Team (ABT) and he was arrested along with five JMB operatives. Rab said they recovered nine improvised explosive devices, five hand grenades, 13 detonators, two pistols, some machetes and knives and bomb-making materials from the arrestees. A map detailing the location of Shah Ali Mazar in the capital's Mirpur was also found in their possession, and Rab officials suspect the Mazar was on their hit list. "We came to know that the six militants gathered in the capital for a suicide attack," Commander Mufti Mahmud Khan, Rab's legal and media wing director, told a press briefing at its headquarters in Uttara on August 10. Sifat had been working as an administrator of At-tamkin webpage which propagated many of the recent killings and terrorist attacks in the country, Mufti claimed. The webpage is run mainly by JMB. After carrying out attacks, they publicise those on the webpage as acts of Islamic State to draw attention, he added. Meherun said she did not believe her brother could be involved in militancy. She added that she heard her brother used to write on various platforms against the "misdeeds" of the government. Their mother Sajeda Begum said if her son was guilty he should be punished as per the law. University sources said Sifat completed his bachelor degree from there. Earlier, he did his diploma in engineering from Khulna Government Polytechnic College in 2011. The then went on to work as a sub-assistant engineer at a private company in Dhaka for a year.
