1	Monwarul Hasan Jim	Vice president of Sadullapur Jubo League	Naldanga, Sadullahpur, Gaibandha			1	1	On 9 January 2017 at around 10.30 pm, Monwarul went outside with motorcycle. He started to go Sadequul Islam's house at Naldanga union. Later, they have been disappeared and traceless. Family members suspected that they were taken by plainclothes law enforcement agency. However, on 20 January 2017 both of them were freed alive by a group of people. Traumatized Sadequul Islam said that after dropping them off a microbus at a lonely place in Syedpur upazila of Nilphamari at midnight, some people told them to take their motorcycle and go straight, without looking back. They later returned home. The victim family said that they did not know about their whereabouts as they remained blindfolded all the time but they served food three times. Earlier on 18 January 2017, family members of the missing leaders at a press conference in the town said that the four were picked up by plainclothes people from different areas.															9/1/2017	20/01/2017	The Daily Star, 20/01/2018, https://www.thedailystar.net/count ry/jim-sadeq-tell-horrifying-event-1348135 , The Daily Star, 19/01/2018, https://www.thedailystar.net/count ry/trace-my-husbands-whereabouts-12012017 , http://www.prothomalo.com/bangladesh/article/1057871 and Prothom Alo 22/01/2017, and The Daily Star, 22/01/2017, https://www.thedailystar.net/front page/two-others-1349044

12	Nurul Alam Nuru aged 40	Assistant General Secretary of JCD (youth wing of BNP)	Raozan Upazila, Chittagong		1	1	A central leader of Sahayabazar Chhatra Dal (student wing of BNP) was found murdered on the banks of the Karnaphuli river in Raozan upazila hours after he was picked up allegedly by law enforcers from his home in the port city on 29 March 2017 night. Nurul Alam Nuru, 40, was shot twice in the head. His hands were tied with rope and there were several injury marks on his body, said Nur Nabi, a Sub-Inspector of Raozan Police Station. Family members and local BNP leaders said Nurul, assistant general secretary of JCD, was picked up by 10 people - five each in police uniform and plainclothes - from his rented home in Chandanpura area around 11:30pm on 29 March 2017. On 30 March 2017 morning, some locals noticed a body on the river banks in Thelhar Char area and informed police, who recovered and sent it to Chittagong Medical College for autopsy. Nuru hailed from Raozan upazila. After being informed, his family members went to the spot and identified his body. Gazi Sirajullah, president of Chittagong city Chhatra Dal (student wing of BNP), said Nuru, a follower of BNP Vice-Chairman Gias Uddin Kader Chowdhury, was murdered "in a planned way". BNP leader Gias Uddin claimed the family members of the victim identified SI Javed (Sheikh Javed Mia) of Raozan Police Station as one of those who had picked up Nuru. He said Nuru was accused in several political cases, but was not a criminal. "He was murdered because of his political identity." SI Sheikh Javed Mia, however, refuted the allegation. "It's not true. I was with my team which was carrying out an anti-militancy drive in Raozan when the Chhatra Dal leader was picked up." Contacted, Kefayet Ullah, officer-in-charge of Raozan Police Station, claimed no policeman was involved in the incident. He said Nuru was facing at least four cases, including two for murder. "We are investigating whether he had enmity with anyone." Senior Assistant Superintendent of Police (Rangunia circle) Zahangir Alam said they would look into the matter.	1									29/03/2017	30/03/2017	The Daily Star 31/03/2017, http://www.thedailystar.net/city/3-family-picked-detectives-1384129

15	SM Shafikur Rahman, 35	Involved with transportation business	Alfalah Goli area, Chittagong		1	1	Three members of a family were picked up from their residence in Chittagong last week by people impersonating themselves as law enforcers, alleged the family members. The three — SM Shafikur Rahman, 35, involved with transportation business, and his brothers-in-law Md Hasan alias Tareq, 21, and Moazzem Hossain Sathi, 18 — were taken away on 24 March from Alfalah Goli area and have remained traceless, according to the family. Shafikur's wife Sultana Razia Tumpa, at a press conference in Chittagong Press Club on March 30, 2017, said that six people impersonating themselves as members of the detective branch of police had entered into their residence around 2:00pm on 24 March and asked Shafikur to write his signature on a piece of paper, but he denied. Sultana said that then the six men took her husband and younger brother Moazzem on a white-colour microbus. Her younger brother Hasan followed the microbus on his motorbike, but he too did not return home. The men also took away eight cell phones from their residence. She also claimed that a day after being taken away, Shafikur had talked to his family from his cell phone and told that a team of law enforcers picked them up and later tortured them. "We filed a general diary with the Khulshi Police Station on 25 March in this connection, but the police could not rescue my husband and brothers. We also contacted Chittagong city DB office, but the concerned officials told us that they had not conducted any drive in that area on 24 March," said the housewife.	1											New Age 31/03/2017 http://www.newagebd.net/article/12398/3-men-picked-up-by-law-enforcers-alleges-family#sthash.H2Vsn5Da.dpuf

34	Hatem Mollah	A small trader	Agrabhulot area , Sharsha upazila of Jessore			1	1	A small trader in Sharsha upazila of Jessore district has been missing on 10 May 2017 after allegedly being picked up by a group of men, who posed themselves as detectives. Family members of the missing person – Hatem Mollah, a small trader from Agrabhulot area – held a press conference at Jessore Press Club on 18 May as they had so far failed to gather any information about his whereabouts from the law enforcement agencies. Hatem's wife Nasima Khatoon Bulu in her written statement said one Jilur Rahman of neighbouring Goga Beelpara area had visited their house in the afternoon on 10 May. He later called five men to the house over mobile phone. The five men introduced themselves as members of the DB and picked up Hatem at gunpoint. The victim's family members went to Jessore DB Office the next day to inquire about the incident, but the law enforcers denied having a hand in it and suggested that they go to the local police. Sharsha police, however, told the family members that Hatem was in custody of the DB and told them to wait for some days, according to Nasima. The family members went to Sharsha police station again on 15 May but could not get any information about Hatem. Contacted, Jessore DB OC Imaul Haque said: "We haven't detained anyone named Hatem Mollah. None of our teams even carried out a drive in Sharsha on the day of the incident." Two days after the press conference Hatem Mollah was freed by RAB. However, family members did not want to talk anything about this incident anymore. They want to keep the incident confidential.										10.05.2017	20.05.2017	Manabzamin 19/05/2017 and Dhaka Tribune 19/05/2017 http://www.dhakatribune.com/bangladesh/nation/2017/05/19/trader-picked-men-posing-detectives-jessore/

45	Mobarak Hossain aged 16	A student of class X of Aagran High School	Boraigram Upazila in Natore			1	1	On 30 May 2017 Mobarak Hossain (16), a student of class X of Aagran High School, was picked up from Boraigram Upazila in Natore by some men claiming to be members of RAB-13. Teachers of Aagran High School said that two men had come to the school about two months ago identifying them as development activists. They showed interest to provide stipend to the students of vocational section and selected five students, including Mobarak Hossain for that. On 30 May, they made a phone call and infomed that they would come to the school to give stipend money. Though the school was closed, the teachers including the Head Teacher were present at the school with those five students. At around 1:00 pm, four men arrived there in a white microbus. They identified them as RAB-13 members and forcefully taken Mobarak Hossain into the microbus. Head Teacher Abdus Sobhan said that the men gave him a cell phone number (01718779522) and told him that Mobarak was being taken for inquiry whether he has any extremist connection. Later he did not get any response by calling to that cell phone. When contacted the control room of RAB-13, one official in anonymity informed that no team from RAB-13 visited Natore. Meanwhile the Assistant Superintendent of Police of Natore RAB Camp, Anwar Hossain said that they have become confirmed that members of RAB-13 had taken Mobarak. On 31 May 2017 Mobarak Hossain was shown arrested by RAB-13 under a case of Anti Terrorism Act which was filed on 6 May 2017 with Rangpur Kotowali Police Station. Till afternoon Mobarak Hossain was not produced before the court said his lawyer Shahadat Hossain.	1											30/05/2017	31/05/2017	Prothom Alo 31/05/2017 and 01/06/2017

Security guard Fakrul of the Bank said that he did not see but heard that a gentleman was picked up on a microbus. A family member of Aniruddha said that they think he might have been abducted following a feud over business. Aniruddha had a partnership business with a ruling party Member of Parliament. Recently, the partnership broke up. This incident has video footage, as well. According to the investigating officials, Aniruddha was not abducted by any professional criminal groups. Analysing the footages, they said the abduction was conducted by trained people and those who were carrying out the abduction were introducing themselves as members of a special force. Gulshan police station Officer-in-Charge Abu Bakar Siddique said that they found a hint of business related conflict. A video footage taken by the Union Bank's CCTV camera shows three persons are picking up a man on a silver coloured microbus at 4:19pm in front of the Bank. Aniruddha's car driver Shah Alam, and others are also there in the footage. Shashwati Roy, wife of Aniruddha, said that her husband went to the Bank for a loan. When asked if she has any suspects, Shashwati said, "I don't want to say anything. Cannot say through what we are passing our days. Please, do something for the sake of our son," she said. Contacted, Dhaka Metropolitan Police (DMP) commissioner Asaduzzaman declined to comment on this issue. After 81 days of disappearance, Aniruddha Roy returned his home suddenly. 90	Saddam (25)	Suspects in the murder of Banani manpower businessman	Comilla			2	2	Two people, identified by police as suspects in the murder of Banani manpower businessman, were killed in a "shootout" between detectives and their cohorts in the capital's Badda. However, families of the deceased alleged that they were picked by some people, who claimed themselves to be detectives, several days ago. Shaikh Nazmul Alam, deputy commissioner of the Detective Branch (north) of Dhaka Metropolitan Police, said the "gunfight" took place around 4:00am when a team of detectives went to Aftabnagar to arrest suspected killers of the businessman. As soon as the DB men reached there, the criminals opened fire. The law enforcers fired retaliatory shots, triggering the "gunfight". Two of the criminals were hit by bullets. Doctors declared them dead after they were taken to Dhaka Medical College Hospital, he said. The police official claimed that Al Amin and Saddam were involved in the killing of Siddik Hossen Munshi in his Banani office on 14 November. Family of Saddam alleged that some people, identifying themselves as detectives, picked up Saddam, a resident of city's Rampura, from his father-in-law's house in Comilla on 26 November. Al Amin's family alleged that law enforcers picked him up from Tongi on 2 December. Both the families claimed that the two were innocent. According to the families, Al Amin used to sell toys, while Saddam used to sell mosquito coils and candles. 92	M. Maroof Zaman	Former Ambassador and retired army officer	Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport Road, Dhaka			1	1	M. Maroof Zaman, a former Ambassador and retired army officer, sent a text message to her elder daughter Shabnam Zaman, who is studying in Brussels of Belgium, that he would drive his own car (Registration Number: Dhaka Metro-Ga-21-1399) to the Shahjalal International Airport of Dhaka to receive his younger daughter Samiha Zaman, who was scheduled to return to Dhaka from Brussels after visiting her elder sister. The flight was scheduled to arrive in Dhaka at 8:00 pm on 4 December 2017. At 6:00 PM on 4 December, Mr. Zaman sent text message to his daughter Shabnam informed him that she would send an SMS message to her father's cell phone for getting update about the landing of her younger sister's flight in Dhaka. At 6:16 PM, Mr. Zaman suggested Shabnam in another text message that she should communicate with him via his cell number: +880 1789 435588. At 6:29 PM, Shabnam replied to her father's text message via Facebook Messenger, which was found not delivered to Mr. Zaman. It indicates that between 6:16 PM and 6:29 PM Mr. Zaman left his home and went out of internet connection. At 7:42 PM: The house help of Mr. Zaman's flat had received a call on the landline at home but it got disconnected before anyone could speak. The number was displayed as "P" (private). At 7:45 PM: A second call was received on the landline, this time with Mr. Zaman telling the maid in a subdued voice that "people will come, give them the laptop and computer". He also said that the house help would not be able to find the other thing they needed, because the helpers do not know what is inside his drawers. The line then hung up. The caller's phone number was displayed on the flat's landphone as "000123456" (which is a strange phone number in Bangladesh's context). At 8:05 PM: Soon after the second phone call, three well-dressed men in plain cloth came to Mr. Zaman's flat. They also systematically opened and searched all of the drawers in Mr. Zaman's room. The house help had called Mr. Zaman's cell phone but found the switched off. One of the men had said, "Sir is in the airport, that's why his phone is off." CCTV footage later showed these men to be dressed in black and in jeans, wearing caps and with their faces obscured. Meanwhile, at 8:01 PM: Mr. Zaman's younger daughter Samiha Zaman's flight landed at the Dhaka airport. She called her father but his phone was found switched off. From then onward both sisters- from and Brussels tried to contact their father repeatedly but to no avail. After a few hours at the airport Samiha called her paternal uncle Mr. Reffat Zaman to pick her up. The relatives were unable to communicate with Mr. Maroof Zaman. 94	Mohammad Murshidul Islam (39)	Farmer and a supporter of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP)	Taherpur Taltoli, Baghmara, Rajshahi	1	1	Murshidul Islam's wife Selina informed that her husband was disappeared on 19 April 2017 by men claiming to be from the Administration. Murshidul was a farmer and was a supporter of the BNP. He was accused in politically motivated cases and arrested in 2007. He was detained in jail for 22 months till his acquittal. Selina said that her son was studying in Kamruzzaman College in Rajshahi town. When her son fell ill, Murshidul went to Rajshahi town to see him. While returning from Rajshahi town, Murshidul was stopped by four plain clothed men at a place called Taherpur. They were on two motorbikes. They blindfolded Murshidul and took him away. Murshidul's nephew Jamal was with him when he was taken. When Jamal asked about the identity of the men, they claimed that they were from the 'Administration'. They threatened Jamal into keeping quiet. The men told Jamal to leave without looking back otherwise they would shoot him. Soon after Murshidul was picked up Jamal informed the locals and his aunt Selina about the incident. Selina went to the police station and filed a General Diary (GD numbered 786) on 20 April 2017. After five days, she met the current member of parliament of Baghmara constituency (Enamul Huq) and he told her that her husband had been picked up by RAB 5 members. He suggested that she to go to the RAB camp. In August 2017, Selina went to the RAB-5 office and SI Jewel Rana wrote down her complaint. Then every month she went to the RAB office and met Commanding Officer Mahbub Alam of RAB 5 and Company Commander Major Ashraf, but they kept denying the arrest of Murshidul Islam. Kuddus was a cattle trader and a supporter of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP). Parvin Nesa, sister of Mohammad Abdul Kuddus, informed that on 06 April 2017 at around 8:30 am, her brother was going to Ahsanganj Bazar in Attarai under Naogaon District with two hundred thousand taka to buy cattle. Kuddus was in an auto rickshaw with some neighbours; and when he reached Ibrahim Nagar, a border area under Baghmara Upazila, two plain clothed men on a motorbike stopped his auto rickshaw. When the neighbours who were with him asked the men who they were and why Kuddus was being picked up, the men claimed that they were from 'the Administration'. They had guns and handcuffs. They handcuffed Mohammad Abdul Kuddus, put a helmet on him and hoisted him onto a motorcycle. At around 9:00 am, Parvin Nesa's cousin called her cell phone and informed her that Kuddus had been taken away. Parvin Nesa contacted her father and her uncle (Yunus Ali) who is a retired RAB official. The men contacted different police stations and RAB camps to search for Kuddus but the latter all denied arresting Kuddus. On the same date, Kuddus' father and uncle went to Baghmara Police Station and lodged a General Diary (GD). GD numbered 224, dated 06/04/2017. After three months of Kuddus' disappearance, the family came to know from a man named Sairul, who was disappeared and detained with Kuddus, that Kuddus was detained in RAB-5 office.	1													06.04.2017	Information gathered by local HRDs
