Jahid Hasan, son of late Md Yasin of Koddartek, Charlakha union - was the driver of Jubo League leader Asim Roy Babu, who was killed in the "shootout" on October 12. Jahid was picked up two days after the incident by people in plainclothes from his aunt's home in Isanagar of Karnaphuli upazila. He has been missing since then, said family members. They added that after the "shootout", Jahid had spoken to several media outlets -- Somoy Television, Cplus TV, and a local online television channel of Chattogram -- as a witness. Hosne Ara Begum, Jahid's mother, in late February, told, "My son worked as Asim's driver for six months. On the day of the 'shootout', he returned home around 3:30am, clearly frightened. Jahid told us about the gunfight, and later heard about the death of Asim from his wife over phone." "We panicked as my son had spoken to the media about how he ran away after the shooting had begun. "On October 14, I went to my sister's home with my two sons and daughter to attend a programme," she added. Jahid's elder brother Mehedi Hasan Biplob said, "Jahid, my mother and I were sleeping in my aunt's home. We woke to the sound of some men speaking outside around 3:30am." "About 4 to 5 people introducing themselves as our guests asked us to open the door," said Mehedi, a carpenter. When Mehedi asked again for their identity, they said they were "people from the administration". "They kept asking questions about Jahid." During their verbal altercation, Mehedi's uncle Md Faruk opened the door. All the men were in plainclothes. "They immediately grabbed Jahid and his cousin Faisal, and showed firearms strapped to their waists to intimidate us." Mehedi said he remembers seeing them shove Jahid into a black SUV and he got the partial number plate, 13-3564. He could not remember the name of the city mentioned on the plate. Mehedi said they went to Rab-7 Chandgaon camp the next day to know the whereabouts of Jahid but Rab officials said they did not detain anyone. Later, Mehedi went to file a General Diary with Karnaphuli Police Station. "I filed the GD in the morning mentioning that Rab men picked up my brother. But in the afternoon, the police gave me a copy of the GD that did not mention Rab." Hosne Ara submitted a written complaint to Rab-7 headquarters on October 28. "I went to Rab-7 headquarters, but they did not allow me to even enter or talk to anyone." When asked on February 24, Sub-Inspector Fazole Rabbi Faisal of Karnaphuli Police Station, also the investigation officer of the missing person case, said, "We are investigating the matter and have forwarded Jahid's photo to other police stations." When contacted, Rab-7 Commanding Officer Lt Col Miftah Uddin Ahmed said, "Rab is also looking for the driver, as we did not find him after the gunfight incident."												1	A GD was filed with Karnaphuli Police Station			14/10/2018		The Daily Star, 10 March 2019, https://www.thedailystar.net/frontpage/news/shootout-witness-missing-5-months-1712827
