1	Enayet Ullah (40)	Alleged criminal	Boalmari upazila, Faridpur			1	1	In Faridpur, Enayet Ullah, was killed in a "gunfight" between police and his armed cohorts in Boalmari upazila. The victim's family members, however, claimed he was picked up by police in 12 January 2020 from Magura. Aminul Islam, officer-in-charge (OC) of Boalmari police station said, "police arrested Enayet from Shaikupa upazila's Hatfajilpur bazar area in Jhenaidah around 8:45pm on 14.1.2020 and brought him to our station." Based on information given by Enayet, police later conducted a drive in Boalmari upazila's Barankula village with him to recover hidden firearms around 2:30am, the OC said. He added that as they reached there, Enayet's cohorts opened fire on the law enforcers, after which a gunfight ensued. Enayet suffered bullet wounds and was taken to BoalmariUpazila Health Complex, where the on-duty doctor declared him death, said OC Aminul. Police said that Enayet was wanted in 13 cases filed on charges of robbery, murder and theft with Bolamari, Kashiyan and Magura Sadar police stations. After the gunfight, Tania Mithu, niece of Enayet, claimed that police picked her uncle up from Magura four days ago and since then, the family could not trace his whereabouts.	1						12.1.2020	15.1.2020	16.1.2020 Daily Star
2	Morshed Alam	Alleged robber	Banshkhali, Chattogram			1	1	Morshed Alam, who was accused of at least 21 cases, was killed in a reported gunfight with the members of the RAB, said Mahmudul Hasan, the assistant director of RAB-7. The officer said the gunfight ensued as a RAB raided on Banigram Lotmuni area at about 12:30am to catch a group of robbers. After the gunfight, Morshed was found shot, but he died on the way to Banshkhali Upazila Health Complex. The RAB members seized five firearms and several cartridges. Mizan, younger brother of Morshed Alam told that the incident of gunfight was a pre-planned. On 24.1.2020 at around 4:00am some plain clothes men who give their identities as administration person, picked up Morshed's house. However, the family members of Morshed had submitted a written complaint before the Banshkhali Police Station but they didn't give them any received copy. They also contact with RAB office but they didn't give any whereabouts of Morshed. Mizan told that his brother was not any robber. Morshed had a conflict with local people over a Waqf estate mosque land. His opponents of a local mosque's Waqf estate landed him in a robbery case in the Kutubdia Sea.	1						24.1.2020	26.1.2020	27.1.2020 Newage
3	Mohammad Shahin (32) and Nazmul Huda (25)	Bird trader and Human Hauler Driver	Dumni, Khilkhet, Dhaka			2	2	Nazmul and Shahin, were killed in a "gunfight" with police at Dumni. They stood accused in at least four cases, including murder and mugging, police said. The "gunfight" took place when a police team set up a checkpoint at Dumni around 3:45am, said Biplob BijoyTalukder, deputy commissioner (Tejgaon division) of Dhaka Metropolitan Police. When the team signalled a CNG-run auto-rickshaw to stop, the criminals opened fire from the vehicle. The law enforcers retaliated, leaving Nazmul and Shahin died after they were rushed to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH). Bachchu Mia, brother of Shahin told that there were no cases against Shahin previously. Shahin was a bird trader who lived in Modhumita Road in Tongi under Gazipur district with his family. 15 days before plain clothes men were picked up Shahin from his shop. They have video footage. They then tried to find out several places including DB Office but failed to collect information of whereabouts of Shahin. On 31 January 2020 they have seen Shahin's news at the daily newspaper. They rushed to DMCH and identified Shahin's dead body. Five bullet marks in his body. The gunfight of police was fake and decorated. On the otherhand, Nazma Begum, mother of Nazmul Huda told that Nazmul was human hauler driver and lived in Tongi. On 13 January 2020 plain clothes men picked up Nazmul from his residence. They confined Nazmul since then and police killed him by bullet shot.	2						13.1.2020 15.1.2020	30.1.2020	1.2.2020 Prothom Alo

4	Delwar Hossain & Saleur Rahman	Rickshaw Puller	Sabujbag, Dhaka		2	2	On 05/01/2020, Delwar called his wife and said that law enforcement officers came to Sabujbag residence and pressured him to open his front door. That was the last conversation she had with her husband as he could not be reached in any way after that phone call. His phone could also not be reached the next day. The same thing happened to the other disappeared person- Saleur. After this, both of the family of the disappeared persons went to Dhaka to go to the Rickshaw garage and garages nearby. Then they went to the local police station, hospital, prison and morgue but was not able to find them. Then on 06/02/2020, Delwar's wife Shirina Begum filed a General Diary (GD No-223) at Sabujbag Police Station and other disappeared person Saleur's father Azizur Rahman filed the General Diary (GD No- 625) on 09/02/2020 at Khilgaon Police Station. The family of the victims are still unable to find any whereabouts of the missing persons even after 7 months of their disappearance. They firmly believe that the law enforcement agencies have enforcedly disappeared these persons. Family confirmed in November 2020 that both of them are held at Keraniganj Prison.					2	1/5/2020	Date not yet confirmed	Information gathered by HRDs of Thaurgaon, 19/08/2020
5	Ayub Ali (55)	Former Setabganj municipal councilor and 7 no. Ward president of municipal BNP unit	Hatrampur Shaalbagan area, Bochaganj upazila, Dinajpur		1	1	Ayub Ali, was killed in a "gunfight" between two groups of criminals. Police said he was accused in 52 cases, including 10 for murders. However, Ayub's family alleged that he was picked up by two policemen from his home in Rail Colony Para on 12 February night. Ferdous Ali, inspector (investigation) of Bochaganj Police Station, said a team of the Detective Branch of police went to Haatrampur village in the upazila on information that a "gunfight broke out between two groups of drug peddlers" around 2:00am. He said police fired seven blank shots after reaching there. Hearing the shots, members of both the groups fled the area. Police later found Ayub lying there badly injured. He died of his wounds on way to M Abdur Rahim Medical College Hospital, the inspector said. Lovley Yasmin, elder daughter of Ayub, alleged that two cops in plainclothes picked up her father from their home around 11:30pm on 12 February when he was watching TV. He was taken to Bochaganj Police Station. Later that night, he was boarded on to a microbus and was shifted to somewhere else, Lovley told. However, Inspector Ferdous refuted the allegations made by Ayub's family. Police claimed to have recovered a pistol, two bullets, crude bombs, and two yaba pills from the spot. They suspected that a feud over sharing money from the sale of drugs triggered the "gunfight".	1					12.2.2020	18.2.2020	The Daily Star and Jugantor, 19.2.2020
6	Borhan Uddin	Alleged JMB member	Sirajganj Jail Gate		1	1	Borhan Uddin's mother, Rasheda Khatun, said, at a press conference on 15 February 2020, that she was unable to find the whereabouts of her son after he was picked up from Sirajganj District Jail gate soon after he was released on bail. Rasheda Khatun said that her son Borhan Uddin was granted bail from the High Court on 10 February and at around 8:00pm, he came out of Sirajganj District Jail. At that time, some men picked Borhan Uddin up from the jail gate and put him into a microbus. When the family contacted law enforcement agencies several times in search of Borhan, the latter denied the arrest. Earlier, in the night of 26 July 2016, the Detective Branch of Police took Borhan out of his house on suspicion of being a militant. Borhan Uddin was released on bail on 8 April 2019, after being detained in jail for two years and nine months. A group of people in plain clothes picked him up from the prison gate and took him away. Then, 22 days later, on 28 April 2019, he was shown as arrested by DB police in a criminal case. In this case, he was released on bail on 10 February 2020 and was again picked up in the same way.<sup>29</sup> On 16 February, RAB members handed Borhan Uddin over to Sirajganj Sadar Police Station and the police showed him arrested in another criminal case and sent him to jail through the court	1					10.2.2020	16.02.2020	Jugantor, 16.2.2020 and Information gathered by HRDs of Sirajganj
7	Fotik Miah, 40	local	Bishwanath upazila, Sylhet		1	1	Halima Khatun wife of Fotik Miah said Fatik was released on bail in a robbery case on February 18 and she was waiting at the jail gate to receive him. As soon as they met, a microbus braked sharply in front of them and some plain cloth policemen forcefully dragged Fotik into the car before speeding away, said Halima. She claimed to have identified one of the policemen as a member of Detective Branch of Police. Meanwhile on 20 February 2020 she filed a case with a Sylhet court in this regard. Police, however, denied the claim and said Fotik Miah, along with accomplices was preparing for a robbery in Surirkhal area and the "shootout" ensued when a police team raided the area. Shamim Musa, officer-in-charge of Bishwanath Police Station, said, "The allegation was completely baseless as three policemen were also injured in the gunfight in which Fatik was killed."		1				18.2.2020	22.2.2020	The Daily Star, 23.2.2020

8	Shafiqul Islam Kajol	Editor of Daily Pokkhokol	In front of his newspaper office		1	1	On March 10, Kajol, went missing. He left home and went to his office in the Hatirpool. He was last seen leaving the office on his motorbike, according to police. His disappearance came a day after Saifuzzaman Shikhor, a ruling Awami League lawmaker from Magura-1, filed a case against him, Editor-in-Chief of daily Manabzamin Matiur Rahman Chowdhury, and 30 others on charges of publishing a report with "false information" and circulating it on social media. Kajol's son Polok went to New Market Police Station to file a case, but the police station did not record any case. Meanwhile, hours after the HC said the family could file a case with any of the two police stations after Jyotirmoy Barua, a Supreme Court lawyer, placed a newspaper report before an HC bench seeking necessary orders. The HC said that the family could file the case in any of the police station. Later Kajol's son Polok on 18th March filed a case with the Chawkbazar Model Police Station. A GD has been filed by Kajol's wife in Chawkbazar Thana on 11th March. Shafiqul Islam Kajol was found near Bangladesh-India border in Benapol of Jashore on 3 May 2020. Senior judicial magistrate Monjurul Islam sent him to jail under Section 54 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in a case on charge of 'illegally entering Bangladesh' in the same day. Kajol said after getting released on bail, "My eyes were tied, my hands were cuffed behind, and my mouth was gagged for all 53 days up until I was dropped off to Benapole. I only kept count of the days. That is it. "It was indescribable. I spent my days thinking about my family and whether I will ever see them again. "I feel like I have died and come back." He, however, did not divulge details of who was keeping him and where. Asked about the conditions of his confinement or what kind of exchanges he had with his abductors, Kajol also chose to keep these details to himself.						1	10/3/2020	5/3/2020	19/03/2020 Daily Star; & Newage 4/5/2020; https://www.newagebd.net/article/105599/photojournalist-kajol-found-near-indian-border-in-jashore-sent-to-jail;06.01.2021dailystar;https://www.thedailystar.net/front-page/news/it-felt-i-was-grave-2022969

21	Baki Billah (37)	Employee of a Broadband Connection, Meritorious Student	Turag, Uttara, Dhaka	1			1	Baki was picked up by people identifying themselves as DB, from downstairs of their rented residence. Police denied that allegation. Baki has a wife and 3 children. He studied in Notre Dame and then to Rajshahi Medical College. Because of not being able to have the money to continue his education, he left studies and started working in online. DB has also denied this allegation. Even the police station took 5 days to register a GD. Baki was taking his son to the Madrasa when 2 unknown men came up to them and asked the son to go back and immediately pushed Baki and took him inside a silver sedan where 8-10 people were inside the car. Night guard of the house informed about this incident to the family.				1					12.11.2020		12.12.2020 Jugantor (Online); https://www.jugantor.com/country-news/373521/ডিবি
