His family alleged that he was taken away in a micro-bus, by several men who were in plain clothes and identified themselves as law enforcement officers. His son, Abu Syed Chowdhury Himu, claimed that, Mohammad Chowdhury Alam was abducted by law enforcement officers and in response, on the 4th of July, 2010, he filed a Habeas Corpus petition at the High Court Division of the Supreme Court, before the bench of Justice H.M Shamsuddin Chowdhury and Justice Sheikh Md. Zakir Hossain. The Court, without issuing any rule on the habeas corpus, wanted to give the police a directive. As a result, the concerned lawyers for Abu Syed Chowdhury Himu, decided to withdraw the writ petition. On 18th July, 2010, Abu Syed Chowdhury Himu, again filed a writ petition before the division bench of Justice Mamunun Rahman and Justice Syeda Afsar Zahan. Having taken the matter into consideration, on 19th July, 2010, the court ordered the Police IGP and RAB DG to immediately investigate the matter and take effective steps. The Court also ordered a report to be submitted on Mohammad Chowdhury Alam's abductors.	1													25.06.2010	Information gathered by local HRDs

12	Monir Hossain Shovon (30)	Former Co-organizing Secretary of Chatra Dal of Uttarathana unit	Mohanagar Natya Mancha, Gulistan	1	Mohammad Shahidullah said that his brother Monir Hossain Shovon was Co-organizing Secretary of Chatra Dal of Uttara thana unit. There were some cases filed against him due to his political affiliation. Besides politics, Monir was involved with mobile phone accessories business. His shop was at 3/4 Techno showroom in the 3rd floor of Gulistan Shopping Centre., Dhaka. On 21 September 2010 at around 11:00pm, Monir's wife, Laboni Akter called Shahidullah and told that Monir informed Laboni over mobile phone at around 6:30pm that he was going to participate in a political program of BNP at Mohanagar Natya Mancha which is a place where now-a-days different political programs take place) at Gulistan and after finishing the program, he supposed to return home within 9:00pm but did not return and Monir's phone found switched off when she tried at 9:30pm. After hearing from Laboni, Shahidullah started searching Monir in every possible place. But could not find him. On the next day when Shahidullah asked some hawkers near the Gulistan Shopping Centre, they told him that at around 9:00pm, some people in plainclothes picked a man in front of Mohanagar Natya Mancha into a white microbus and went away. At around 1:00am, Laboni found her husband's mobile switched on and called. At that time, one person pretended to be Monir told her that he will return home soon. However, she was sure that the person on the other side of the phone was not Monir. Seven to eight days later, Shahidullah with the help of mobile network operator agency tried to track the phone location and found the latest location at Sector- 1, Uttara which is near the RAB headquarter. They suspected that his brother was arrested by RAB. Then he contacted some RAB officials including Major Mohiuddin, Assistant Commissioner (AC) Jahangir. They told Shahidullah not to go anywhere, not even to police station regarding his brother's disappearance. RAB was working with the incident and Shahidullah will get his brother back very soon. Shahidullah kept contacting the RAB for six months but did not get any result. One day, Shahidullah asked the security guard of RAB head quarter main gate about his brother and he told him that your brother had very good breakfast, so don't worry. After six months, the RAB officials told Shahidullah that Abul Haider is the Secretary of BNP, ward no 21 of Barisal and also worked at a pharmacy named Remon Drugs. On December 23, 2010 he headed towards Dhaka for official purposes with his Assistant Kabir Hossain. They went to book a room at Jakaria Hotel at Mohakhali. He sent his Assistant to upstairs of the hotel to see the room while he was waiting at the downstairs. At that time, a black vehicle came there and some men introduced themselves as RAB picked him up. Still his whereabouts remain unknown. After 11 days, on December 8, 2013 Anisur, Biplop and Mithu were released but the whereabouts of Somrat Molla and Khaled Hasan Sohel still remain unknown. The incident took place when the five friends (Chhatra Dal leaders) were waiting outside Dhaka Central Jail in order to see two BNP activists, Shahin and Sanjoy, both from their locality, who had been arrested the previous day suspected of being involved in a bombing case. The five friends had come together to the jail gate at noon and had obtained tokens allowing them to enter the jail at around 12:40 pm. When they went into the visiting area, the two detained BNP activists (Shahin and Sanjoy) whom the five men had come to see, were not present. After they left the jail interior, the five friends thought they would try again, and got tokens allowing them entry at about 1:15 pm. five friends were waiting outside in a crowd of around 50 people who were also there to meet their relatives or friends inside the prison. At that time, a group of people in plainclothes came there and picked up the five with them. The three of the five friends, who were supporters of the BNP's student wing, but not its office holders, were released on 8 December, having been detained for 11 days. However, the whereabouts of Somrat Molla and Khaled Hasan Sohel remain unknown. The families of the disappeared visited different police stations in Dhaka and other law enforcement agencies, including the Detective Branch of police, RAB offices; and Rajshahi, Sylhet and Chittagong Central Jails to see whether they were detained there. Mohammad Ruhul Amin Chowdhury, father of Adnan Chowdhury told that on the night of December 5, 2013 at around 2:30am a few people started knocking on the main gate at his house in Shahinbagh. When he wanted to know who was knocking on the gate, the people who were knocking on the gate told him that they were from law enforcement agencies and told him to open the gate. He opened the gate and saw that around 14-15 men wearing black uniforms with RAB written on them were standing there with a black and a gray microbus. The ones who were wearing the black uniforms were armed. Then, a few of them went inside their house and started searching for Adnan. Adnan then came out from his room. At that time, the men started searching the whole house. One of them told him that they need to take Adnan with them because they would like to ask him a few questions. They also ensured that after the questioning, they will bring Adnan back. Then they took Adnan inside a microbus and left. On the morning of December 5, 2013, he went to Tejgaon Police Station, RAB-1 office and RAB-2 office as Adnan did not return home. He could not find Adnan anywhere.	1												05.12.2013	Information gathered by local HRDs

The farmhouse is owned by a relative of Mahabub Hasan, Azad Mohammad Sadequl Islam. Both Mahabub Hasan and Kazi Farhad had visited to the farmhouse two days before the incident. From there, they were taken to Mahabub Hasan's flat situated at Fakirerpul in Dhaka. A construction worker, who witnessed the incident, informed that on December 7, 2015 a group of people knocked the door of the farmhouse. When he opened the door the men entered the farmhouse and picked up Mahabub Hasan and Kazi Farhad. Later the worker informed such incident to the farmhouse owner Azad Mohammad Sadequl Islam. The workers of the farmhouse, speaking on condition of anonymity, stated that when the men first knocked the door, the workers asked them who they were. The men replied the workers that they were police and workers were told to open the door. When workers opened the door, and the men who identified them as police asked workers if Mahabub Hasan was in their room. The workers told them that Mahabub Hasan was not in the room and after that they went to Mahabub Hasan's room and locked the door of the workers from outside. A businessman who was present in Fokirerpul area at that time, informed that the men who brought Mahabub Hasan and Kazi Farhad to the flat were in civil dress, but one of them had the letters 'DB' written on the back of his jacket.															1	07.12.2013		Abdul Zail, father,01715014247, Tanjina Akhter,wife of Sujon, 01734009911 Aman, cousin, 01822875179 New Age, 28.11.2014, http://newagebd.net/71268/picked-up-a-year-ago-theyre-yet-to-return/#sthash.mgBagEtl.dpu f

Moajjem Hossain Tapu completed B.com in Marketing from Abuzar University College and was preparing to admit in MBA. He was the President of Rampura 22 Ward unit of Bangladesh Chhatra League (student wing of the ruling Awami League). His mother Saleha Begum alleged that on 26 January 2016 at around 11.00 pm, S.M. Moajjem Hossain Tapu was picked up by three plainclothes men, who were carrying guns, from a house located at the Bashundhara Residential Area (Flat No. A/3, House No. 353, Road No.11, Block-D) in Dhaka. She said that the men took her son away on a white microbus. It is to be mentioned that Tapu went there to pick up one of his friends' wife Nishi to attend a programme to another friend's house. At that time, Nishi was present there and witnessed the incident. She asked the men that why and where Tapu was taken to. In reply, the men threatened Nishi to shoot her to death by showing guns, if she asked anymore questions. Eventually, they left the place after taking Tapu with them. The shopkeepers of a nearby pharmacy also witnessed the incident that. After the incident Tapu's friends Emon called Tapu's elder brother Moinul Islam Opu on his cell phone and informed him that Tapu was picked up by some unidentified men. Hearing this, the family members of Tapu immediately went to Bhatara Police Station to file a complaint. However, the Officer-in-Charge of that police station, Mohammad Nurul Muttakin told them to go to the Office of the Detective Branch (DB) of Police. They went to the DB office, but they also denied the arrest and the whereabouts of Tapu. The family filed a General Diary (GD) and an abduction case with Bhatara Police Station in this regard. They organised a press conference on 8 February 2016. They searched for him in different places but did not find him. Moreover, Tapu's family visited the Ministry of Home Affairs several times. 99	Kamrul Islam Sikdar Musa	Informant of Police and suspect of Mitu murder case	Kathgar area, Chittagong	1	Police claimed that they are still looking for their informant Kamrul Islam Sikdar Musa in connection with the Mitu killing case, but Musa's wife said the law enforcers had already picked him up over a week ago. Musa's wife Panna Akter on June 30, 2016 went to Rangunia Police Station to file a general diary about her "missing" husband, but the police officer on duty there advised her to go to another police station. Panna told a newspaper The Daily Star over the phone that after staying a couple of weeks at her father's home in Rangunia, she returned home in the port city's Kala Mia Bazar area on June 21. Some neighbor's then told her about police officials visiting her home. She said she then called her husband over the phone and after consulting with him, she along with her two sons and a brother-in-law went to the home of her husband's friend Nur Nabi in Kathgar area. "On that night her husband called Nabi over the phone and then told her on his phone that he would visit her a day later," she said. The following morning on June 22,2016 a group of plainclothes policemen went to the house and asked Nabi and Panna to call Musa over the phone and ask him to come over, she claimed. "They asked them to talk to Musa in such a manner that he did not suspect that policemen were with them," said Panna. When Nabi called Musa, Musa told him that he was near his house and at that moment the "policemen instructed other law enforcers" outside to arrest Musa, she claimed. When asked, Panna said her husband went to Anwara on June 4 and returned home the following morning, the day Mitu was killed. She claimed Musa was not involved in the killing. "My husband is a sand trader who also sells bricks," said Panna, adding that her husband had no case filed against him earlier. But she could not give any details about his work as an informant.															1				22.06.2016		Panna Akter, wife of Musa, cell no- 01814752542, The Daily Star 01.07.2016 http://www.thedailystar.net/frontpage/musa-was-arrested-week-ago-1248724

Selina said that her son was studying in Kamruzzaman College in Rajshahi town. When her son fell ill, Murshidul went to Rajshahi town to see him. While returning from Rajshahi town, Murshidul was stopped by four plain clothed men at a place called Taherpur. They were on two motorbikes. They blindfolded Murshidul and took him away. Murshidul's nephew Jamal was with him when he was taken. When Jamal asked about the identity of the men, they claimed that they were from the 'Administration'. They threatened Jamal into keeping quiet. The men told Jamal to leave without looking back otherwise they would shoot him. Soon after Murshidul was picked up Jamal informed the locals and his aunt Selina about the incident. Selina went to the police station and filed a General Diary (GD numbered 786) on 20 April 2017. After five days, she met the current member of parliament of Baghmara constituency (Enamul Huq) and he told her that her husband had been picked up by RAB 5 members. He suggested that she to go to the RAB camp. In August 2017, Selina went to the RAB-5 office and SI Jewel Rana wrote down her complaint. Then every month she went to the RAB office and met Commanding Officer Mahub Alam of RAB 5 and Company Commander Major Ashraf, but they kept denying the arrest of Murshidul Islam. It has been three years and seven months since Murshidul was picked up and disappeared.	1													19.04.2017		Information gathered by local HRDs
116	Mohammad Abdul Kuddus (28)	Cattle Trader and a supporter of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP)	Ibrahim Nagar, Baghmara, Rajshahi	1	Mohammad Abdul Kuddus (28), son of Mohammad Abdus Samad and a resident of Baghmara in Rajshahi, was disappeared on 06 April 2017 by plainclothes men claiming to members of 'Administration'. Kuddus was a cattle trader and a supporter of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP). Parvin Nesa, sister of Mohammad Abdul Kuddus, informed that on 06 April 2017 at around 8:30 am, her brother was going to Ahsanganj Bazar in Attarai under Naogaon District with two hundred thousand taka to buy cattle. Kuddus was in an auto rickshaw with some neighbours; and when he reached Ibrahim Nagar, a border area under Baghmara Upazila, two plain clothed men on a motorbike stopped his auto rickshaw. When the neighbours who were with him asked the men who they were and why Kuddus was being picked up, the men claimed that they were from 'the Administration'. They had guns and handcuffs. They handcuffed Mohammad Abdul Kuddus, put a helmet on him and hoisted him onto a motorcycle. At around 9:00 am, Parvin Nesa's cousin called her cell phone and informed her that Kuddus had been taken away. Parvin Nesa contacted her father and her uncle (Yunus Ali) who is a retired RAB official. The men contacted different police stations and RAB camps to search for Kuddus but the latter all denied arresting Kuddus. On the same date, Kuddus' father and uncle went to Baghmara Police Station and lodged a General Diary (GD). GD numbered 224, dated 06/04/2017. After three months of Kuddus' disappearance, the family came to know from a man named Sairul, who was disappeared and detained with Kuddus, that Kuddus was detained in RAB-5 office.	1													06.04.2017		Information gathered by local HRDs

124	Jahid Hasan, 18	Driver of Jubo League leader	Isanagar of Karnaphuli upazila, Chittagong	1	Jahid Hasan, an eyewitness to an alleged shootout between drug peddlers and Rapid Action Battalion-7 in Chattogram's Muradpur area has been missing since 14 October 2018. Jahid Hasan, son of late Md Yasin of Koddartek, Charlakkha union - was the driver of Jubo League leader Asim Roy Babu, who was killed in the "shootout" on October 12. Jahid was picked up two days after the incident by people in plainclothes from his aunt's home in Isanagar of Karnaphuli upazila. He has been missing since then, said family members. They added that after the "shootout", Jahid had spoken to several media outlets -- Somoy Television, Cplus TV, and a local online television channel of Chattogram -- as a witness. Hosne Ara Begum, Jahid's mother, in late February, told, "My son worked as Asim's driver for six months. On the day of the 'shootout', he returned home around 3:30am, clearly frightened. Jahid told us about the gunfight, and later heard about the death of Asim from his wife over phone." "We panicked as my son had spoken to the media about how he ran away after the shooting had begun. "On October 14, I went to my sister's home with my two sons and daughter to attend a programme," she added. Jahid's elder brother Mehedi Hasan Biplob said, "Jahid, my mother and I were sleeping in my aunt's home. We woke to the sound of some men speaking outside around 3:30am." "About 4 to 5 people introducing themselves as our guests asked us to open the door," said Mehedi, a carpenter. When Mehedi asked again for their identity, they said they were "people from the administration". "They kept asking questions about Jahid." During their verbal altercation, Mehedi's uncle Md Faruk opened the door. All the men were in plainclothes. "They immediately grabbed Jahid and his cousin Faisal, and showed firearms strapped to their waists to intimidate us." Mehedi said he remembers seeing them shove Jahid into a black SUV and he got the partial number plate, 13-3564. He could not remember the name of the city mentioned on the plate. Mehedi said they went to Rab-7 Chandgaon camp the next day to know the whereabouts of Jahid but Rab officials said they did not detain anyone. Later, Mehedi went to file a General Diary with Karnaphuli Police Station. "I filed the GD in the morning mentioning that Rab men picked up my brother. But in the afternoon, the police gave me a copy of the GD that did not mention Rab." Hosne Ara submitted a written complaint to Rab-7 headquarters on October 28. "I went to Rab-7 headquarters, but they did not allow me to even enter or talk to anyone." When asked on February 24, Sub-Inspector Fazle Rabbi Faisal of Karnaphuli Police Station, also the investigation officer of the missing person case, said, "We are investigating the matter and have forwarded Jahid's photo to other police stations." When contacted, Rab-7 Commanding Officer Lt Col Miftah Uddin Ahmed said, "Rab is also looking for the driver, as we did not find him after the gunfight incident."	1	14/10/2018	The Daily Star, 10 March 2019, https://www.thedailystar.net/frontend/news/shootout-witness-missing-5-months-1712827

133	Muhammad Shahbuddin	Tax lawyer of Shahid Uddin Khan	Dhaka	1	Law enforcement personnel, detain Johirul Haque Khandaker on January 13, 2019 along with two other colleagues, Korshed Alam Patwari, and Sayed Akidul Ali in Dhaka, all were employed by Shahid Uddin Khan, a retired Bangladesh colonel. Shahid Uddin Khan, has accused his former business associate, Major General Tarique Ahmed Siddique, Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's security adviser, of ordering the detentions as part of a campaign of intimidation against him. However, Shahid Uddin Khan's relationship with Siddique soured when he was instructed by the prime minister's adviser to close down the company. According to Khan, on April 4, 2018, the day after the company was shut, Siddique began to exert pressure on him. Military officers from the DGFI, the army's intelligence wing, raided Khan's office and took dozens of boxes of the company's documents to Siddique's house. Four staffs were allegedly driven to DGFI headquarters where they were held, blindfolded, and interrogated about Khan's financial affairs. They were all released after 48 hours. Six weeks later, Khan's tax lawyer Muhammad Shahbuddin was picked up by government authorities. "Two persons came out from a car and forcefully took our father away from us and forced him inside the SUV," the lawyer's son wrote in a complaint to the police.															1	5/1/2018	22/11/2019 Al Jazeera; https://www.aljazeera.com/news/2019/11/employee-uk-based-bangladeshi-businessman-dies-custody-191122110819149.html

135	Ismail Hossain Baten aged 60	Wood Trader at Dada Sawmill	Shah Ali Mazar, Mazar road, Gabtoli, Dhaka	1	On 19 June 2019 at around 2:30pm, Ismail Hossain Baten was returning home for lunch from his workplace 'Dada Sawmill' at Shah Ali Mazar, Mazar road, Gabtoli, Dhaka. Within half an hour, his mobile phone was found switched off. On that night at around 11:00pm, Ismail's younger brother Mohammad Khairul Alam went to Shah Ali Police Station to file a General Diary (GD). However, the duty officer refused to file the GD at night and told him to come on the next day at 10:00am. When Khairul went to the police station again, the officer said that he could not file GD without investigation. Later, police investigate the incident and filed a GD, numbered 830, date- 20 June 2019. The police of Shah Ali Police Station collected the video footage of the CCTVs of different shops along the road, through which Ismail Hossain was returning to his house. But all the footage was found blank approximately between 2:00pm to 4:00pm. Ismail's wife Nasrin Jahan Smriti alleged that Rasel Ahammad Kabir, Director, Communication and Signal, RAB was involved in the disappearance of her husband due to a previous enmity between Rasel's father Fayeze Ahammad Mintu and Ismail Hossain. Smriti informed that 35 years ago her husband was an accused in the murder of former Jagodal (the political party before BNP) leader Fayeze Ahammad Mintu. However, the court found him innocent and he was acquitted, though sons of Fayeze Ahammad thought that Ismail was guilty. Ismail Hossain was also attacked on 19 March 2015 and was severely injured by some people associated with the sons of Fayeze Ahammad at his village home. Since then, Ismail Hossain has been permanently staying in Dhaka with his family. Smriti also said that 4-5 days before her husband's disappearance, he was very worried because he got information from his village Kukrarai at Bajitpur of Kishoreganj district, that sons of Fayeze Ahammad were telling people to take revenge for their father's murder as one of his son's, Rasel Ahammad Kabir had become the Director, Communication and Signal of RAB. Ismail Hossain wanted to file a GD regarding the matter but could not.
